MEMORANDUM

To: Members of the Board of Education

From: Jerry D. Weast, Superintendent of Schools

Subject: Maryland State Department of Education Reporting of Highly Qualified Teachers

The purpose of this memorandum is to provide you with information regarding the number and percent of core academic classes being taught by teachers designated as highly qualified in the Montgomery County Public Schools (MCPS). As of December 1, 2007, 92.5 percent of MCPS core academic classes were being taught by teachers who are designated highly qualified. This is an increase from 90.5 percent of the classes taught by highly qualified teachers on December 1, 2006, and 85.5 percent on December 1, 2005. These data are compiled and reported by the Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE).

The federal No Child Left Behind (NCLB) legislation required school districts to ensure that all teachers of core academic subjects met the requirements to be designated highly qualified by July 1, 2006. However, because no Maryland counties were able to comply with the 100 percent highly qualified designation by July 1, 2006, MSDE requested an extension until July 1, 2007, which was approved by the federal government.

A class is considered as being taught by a teacher designated highly qualified if the teacher is certified and has completed an academic major or has passed an appropriate PRAXIS test; completed the High, Objective, Uniform State Standard of Evaluation (HOUSSE); or holds an advanced professional certificate in the core academic subject he/she is teaching. Core academic subjects are English, language arts/reading, foreign languages, mathematics, science, the arts, elementary and early childhood education, and social studies.

The December 1, 2007, report limits the number of elementary art and music classes to one class per teacher per elementary school. Additionally, instances of simultaneously scheduled course sections in the same subject area, taught by one teacher, were combined and reported as one class. As a result, the total number of core academic classes reported countywide has dropped from 31,119 as of December 1, 2003, when first reported, to 20,444 as of December 1, 2007. Of the 20,444 core academic subject classes being taught by MCPS teachers as of December 1, 2007, 18,902 were being taught by teachers who are designated highly qualified, and 1,542 were being taught by teachers who are not yet designated highly qualified.

Countywide, 96.9 percent of classes in the core academic area of elementary and early childhood education were taught by highly qualified teachers, followed by classes in social studies (95.1 percent), the arts (94.3 percent), English (91.6 percent), mathematics (91.0 percent), science (90.6 percent), language arts/reading (89.1 percent), and foreign languages (87.9 percent).

MCPS expects to continue increasing the number of core academic classes being taught by highly qualified teachers for FY 2009. The Office of Human Resources (OHR) continues to review the designations of all teachers who are teaching in core academic subjects. In collaboration with the Department of Reporting and Regulatory Accountability, OHR staff works with MSDE to support accurate reporting of data and works in collaboration with Office of School Performance staff to support school administrators in assigning teachers to core academic subject classes for which they are designated as highly qualified. The NCLB legislation outlines a list of minimum requirements, both in content knowledge and teaching skills, to meet highly qualified status. NCLB requires teachers to have a bachelor's degree; have full state certification, not on an emergency, temporary, or provisional basis; and demonstrate content knowledge in the subjects they teach.

The OHR continues to use various strategies to ensure that the number of highly qualified teachers teaching core academic subject(s) increases yearly. Principals are provided with data, updated weekly, showing each teacher's certification status and highly qualified designations, which assists them in making informed decisions about teacher assignments. In addition, the certification/highly qualified status of voluntary, involuntary, and return-from-leave employees is shared with principals who work with OHR for appropriate placements. Conditionally certified teachers are no longer contracted unless the director grants approval, and only for critical shortage areas. Special educators who are not yet highly qualified are reviewed for compliance and encouraged to complete the necessary course work or testing to be designated highly qualified. Educators who are teaching out-of-area are informed of the necessary testing or course work to become highly qualified.

Striving toward 100 percent compliance, OHR has targeted recruitment trips to colleges/universities whose graduates have completed programs that meet NCLB highly qualified requirements. The Office of Organizational Development and OHR have developed and implemented university partnerships programs to produce more highly qualified teachers in critical shortage areas.

Under NCLB, states decide what is necessary for certification and for determining subject-matter competency. As a result, the specific criteria that must be satisfied to achieve the highly qualified designation vary from state to state. Therefore, a teacher coming to MCPS from outside the state of Maryland who was designated highly qualified may or may not be designated highly qualified by Maryland standards. MSDE continues to develop and refine the requirements for highly qualified teachers.

The attached summary data provide the number and percent of core academic area classes being taught by teachers who have been designated highly qualified and classes being taught by teachers who have not been designated highly qualified as of December 1, 2007. The complete report is available at <http://www.montgomeryschoolsmd.org/departments/regulatoryaccountability/pdf/reports/HQT2008.pdf>.
