

BRIDE OF FRANKENSTEIN

LCL! 3x3 Film Guide

Act I

“Life as Usual” is an early 1800’s Eastern European village, where Dr. Frankenstein’s laboratory is burned down by a mob of villagers whose goal is to kill the monster he created.

- a) The fire forces the monster out of the burning lab. He cannot distinguish between “good” and “evil.”
- b) He is captured and shows by escaping that he is resisting the journey to live among the living
- c) He lives briefly with a blind man who teaches him how to live among the living.

Act II

- a) The monster must get away from the mob that is chasing him.
- b) The monster must convince Dr. Pretorius to make him a mate.
- c) The monster must convince Dr. Frankenstein to make him a mate.

Act III

- a) The monster returns to the lab
- b) The monster states that he, the mate, and Dr. Pretorius belong with the dead.
(Character arc: He distinguishes between “good” and “evil.”)
- c) The monster, the mate, and Dr. Pretorius are killed in the explosion after the monster saves Dr. Frankenstein & his fiancé.