

CONFLICT SCENE

Challenge:

Your production team will interpret and tape the following:

A student has no pencil to do written classwork and is handed a pencil by another student. When the student begins writing, the pencil resists in some human way...either by dialogue or by action. The student tries three times, with the same result. The student's fear or frustration can be seen.

Conditions:

Your production team will create this scene with the following conditions:

- 1) The scene must be interpreted using one of the four types of conflict:
character vs character
character vs self
character vs society
character vs nature
- 2) The video may not exceed 90 seconds.
- 4) The video must take place within four feet of the desk.
- 5) The video shots must be assembled "in camera," as you go along.

Be considerate of other groups nearby...

"Quiet on the set" is what the professionals say to quiet those around them. These 4 words are taken very seriously on movie sets and will be used in the same serious manner in this class. When you finish filming a take, say, "Cut," so other groups know they can resume talking
