* Note: In 2007, Lights, Camera, Literacy! (LCL!) was designed as a 20-session summer program for the MCPS Middle School Reform Initiative. Because of its remarkably high success with disengaged students, principals asked to initiate the course as an elective during the upcoming school year. The LCL! elective teachers reported that the LCL! manual's existing organization allowed greater flexibility than rewriting lessons specific to class period length. Because of this feedback, the LCL! teacher manuals have retained the original 20-lessons format. (Each LCL! summer lesson translates to approximately one week of LCL! elective instruction.)
