

"Lights, Camera, Literacy! PART TWO"
Context Clues

AKEELAH AND THE BEE

Script page 10

1. On your script page, underline these words:

scrutinizes (shown twice)

diversion (shown once)

2. Have you ever seen these words before? _____

3. Have you ever used these words before? _____

4. From the way these are used on page 10, make a guess as to what you think each word might mean:

scrutinizes _____

diversion _____

5. Most middle school students have not used these two words before, but now you will. You will be using these two words in your production. You MUST find a way for your characters to say these two words in a correct context in your production.

6. When you have incorporated the two words into your film, show it to your teacher, who will make sure the words have been used in a way that shows that you understand their accurate meanings.

(NOTE: You cannot have a character say, "I am going to look up the word diversion." or "Do you know what the word diversion means?" You MUST use it in CONTEXT.)
