

LIGHTS, CAMERA, MEDIA LITERACY!
INTERVIEW PLANNING SHEET

You are creating a filmed interview of one or more fictitious historians who answer questions about the timeline of media.

1) The fictitious name(s) of your media expert:

2) The fictitious name of your television interviewer:

3) Write five or more questions the interviewer will be asking and the answers that will be given to explain a timeline of media. The answers may be totally made up or factual, but in the interview the expert(s) must act as if everything they say is factual.
