I'm your host Movie Star Max.

Let's give a big round of applause for today's players. (Say names.)

Now for those of you new to Film Frenzy, I'll explain how the game works.

There are three rounds.

Teams take turns answering questions and for each question answered correctly, a team earns one point.

At the end of our game, the team that has the most points is our winner.

Okay. That about covers it.

We'll start you off with one point each, just for your exhilarating enthusiasm.

Good luck, contestants. Let's begin!

First Commercial Break

Second Commercial Break

That's the end of Round Two, but don't go away.

After a short break, we'll be back to play one more round and find out who wins Film Frenzy.
