Lights, Camera, Media Literacy!
The History of the Internet

Fill in the blanks with the terms from the box below…

direct	internet	phone	hardware
ARPANET	commercial	military	scientific
remote	time-sharing	DARPA	people
one	batch processing	cooled	directly

1) Before 1957, computers could only work on _____ task at a time.

2) This was called _____.

3) Computers were big and had to be stored in _____ rooms.

4) Computer programmers could not work _____ on the computer.

5) In 1957, a _____ connection was installed to change this.

6) The idea of _____ allowed multiple users to share one computer.

7) In 1958, the U.S. founded the Defense Advanced Research Project Agency, known as _____.

8) "At that time, knowledge was only transferred by _____."

9) DARPA created the _____ to avoid overlapping research.

10) Rand Corporation created a _____ network.

11) National Physics Laboratory (NPL) created a _____ network.

12) Cyclades created a _____ network.

13) Radio waves were replaced by _____ waves.

14) Cyclades connected small networks without the interference of a central computer and this was called the _____.

15) Translation protocol was provided by _____ companies for a monthly charge.

16) In 1990 ARPANET _____ was removed.